JOB DESCRIPTION for INTERNSHIP

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Title</th>
<th>Project Intern of the Protecting Fundamental Freedoms, Land Rights and Natural Resources in Cambodia (“PFFLN”) Project</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Responsible to</td>
<td>Project Coordinator/ PFFLN Team</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Location</td>
<td>Cambodian Center for Human Rights (“CCHR”) based in Phnom Penh, with travel to the provinces as required.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Duration</td>
<td>6 Months</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Job Purpose
The Project Intern’s main job is to work with the Project Coordinator/PFFLN Team in order to implement the project’s activities.

Responsibilities:

- Assist recording and following up on news related to violations of fundamental freedom, land, and natural resources;
- Assist in filing project documents under the supervision of the Project Coordinator;
- Assist in researching and translating other legal documents when required;
- Assist in organizing the project’s events, workshops or trainings; and
- Complete other duties assigned by the Project Coordinator/organization.

Requirements

- Recent University graduate or year 3- 4 University Student in the field of law;
- Fair command of the English language- reading, writing and speaking;
- Interested in human rights field;
- Have a good communication and interpersonal skill; and
- Honest, hardworking and willing to learn;
- Computer skills, including Microsoft Office, Internet and email are preferable; and
- No work experience in required.

----END----