Public Letter Urging an Immediate Investigation into the Disappearance of Khem Sophath

March 23, 2014 - We, the undersigned civil society groups, express our deep concern over the disappearance of Khem Sophath, a 16-year-old boy missing since the violent crackdown by Cambodian security forces against striking garment workers on 3 January 2014 near the Canadia Industrial area on Veng Sreng road, Phnom Penh. We call on the Royal Government of Cambodia (RGC) to take all appropriate measures to immediately, thoroughly and impartially investigate Khem Sophath’s disappearance and inform his family of his fate or whereabouts.

The crackdown, which started on 2 January 2014, resulted in at least four people killed, dozens injured and 23 workers and human rights defenders arrested. Khem Sophath was last seen on the morning of 3 January 2014 lying on the ground on Veng Sreng road with blood pouring from what appeared to be a gunshot wound to his chest. More than two months later, his whereabouts remain unknown.

The RGC acceded to the International Convention for the Protection of All Persons from Enforced Disappearance (ICCPED) on 27 June 2013 and is therefore legally bound by the terms of that treaty. Under Article 2 of the ICCPED, an enforced disappearance occurs if a person has been deprived of his or her liberty in any form by a State agent or person acting with the support or acquiescence of the State and, subsequently, the State refuses to acknowledge the deprivation or conceals the person’s whereabouts.

On the day of the shooting a friend and co-worker saw Khem Sophath on the ground with a serious wound to his chest. As bystanders tried to aid him, Khem Sophath was heard urging them not to help but to save themselves, saying he “would not survive.” At the time, shots were still being fired at civilians. Those who tried to help him went into hiding, including the main eyewitness, who had himself been shot and did not receive medical treatment until later that day.

Considering the witness’s report and Khem Sophath’s unknown whereabouts in the context of the arbitrary killings and arrests carried out by Cambodian security forces that day, there are reasonable grounds to believe that Khem Sophath might have been subjected to an enforced disappearance. However, to date, the authorities have denied any knowledge of his fate or whereabouts and neglected to conduct any investigation.

Enforced disappearances violate numerous human rights including: the prohibition on torture and cruel, inhuman, and degrading treatment; the right to liberty and security of the person; the right to a family life; the right to a fair and public trial; and, in the event that the disappeared person is killed, the right to life.

The ICCPED, beyond prohibiting enforced disappearances, creates an obligation for the State to take appropriate measures to investigate situations where there are reasonable grounds to believe that an enforced disappearance has occurred and to bring those responsible to justice, whether or not a formal complaint has been lodged. Furthermore, the State shall “take all appropriate measures to search for, locate and release disappeared persons and, in the event of death, to locate, respect and return their remains.”

---

1 See Convention for the Protection of All Persons from Enforced Disappearance (hereinafter ICCPED), Art. 12(2)
2 ICCPED, Art. 24(3)
However, the RGC has thus far failed to properly investigate Khem Sophath’s disappearance or the excessive use of force by state security forces. On the contrary, on 7 January 2014, Brigadier General Kheng Tito stated that any investigation would focus on “inciters” rather than the military police.\(^3\) So far, no results of any investigation have been made public. In addition, on 06 February 2014, the same General told VOA Khmer that Khem Sophath had not been located among those arrested – something rights groups and journalists knew weeks previously – and encouraged his family to lodge a complaint to the courts.\(^4\)

The Cambodian Human Rights and Development Association (ADHOC) and the Cambodian League for the Promotion and Defense of Human Rights (LICADHO) have carried out their own investigations as to Khem Sophath’s whereabouts, but have so far been unable to locate him. His family now presumes him dead.

In compliance with its obligations under the ICCPED, the RGC should immediately conduct a thorough and impartial investigation into the possibility that Khem Sophath was subjected to an enforced disappearance. Additionally, family members have the right to know the truth regarding the circumstances of the enforced disappearance, the progress and results of the investigation and the fate or whereabouts of the disappeared person.\(^5\) If it is found that Khem Sophath is a victim of enforced disappearance the ICCPED makes it clear that those suspected of criminal responsibility must be held to account. Additionally, victims have the right to reparations, including: prompt, fair and adequate compensation; restitution; rehabilitation; restoration of dignity and reputation; and guarantees of non-repetition such as recognition by RGC of the competence of the Committee on Enforced Disappearances to receive and consider communications from or on behalf of victims and other states parties.

This public letter has been endorsed by the following 54 Cambodian & international civil society groups:

1. Amnesty International
2. Asia Pacific Forum on Women, Law and Development (APWLD)
3. Asian Forum for Human Rights and Development (FORUM-ASIA)
4. Banteay Srey
5. Boeung Kak Lake Community (BKL)
6. Borei Keila Community (BK)
7. Building and Wood Workers Trade Union Federation of Cambodia (BWTUC)
8. CamASEAN Youth’s Future (CamASEAN)
9. Cambodia’s Independent Civil-Servants Association (CICA)
10. Cambodian Alliance of Trade Unions (CATU)
11. Cambodian Center for Human Rights (CCHR)
12. Cambodian Center for Independent Media (CCIM)
13. Cambodian Confederation Unions (CCU)
14. Cambodian Domestic Worker Network (CDWN)
15. Cambodian Food and Service Worker Federation (CFSWF)
16. Cambodian Human Rights Action Committee (CHRAC)
17. Cambodian Human Rights and Development Association (ADHOC)
18. Cambodian Independent Teachers Association (CITA)
19. Cambodian Labour Confederation (CLC)
20. Cambodian League for the Promotion and Defense of Human Rights (LICADHO)
21. Cambodian Tourism and Service Workers Federation (CTSWF)
22. Cambodian Worker Center for Development (CWCD)
23. Cambodian Youth Network (CYN)

---

\(^3\) The Cambodia Daily, No Results in Protest Shooting Investigations, 04 February 2014
\(^5\) See ICCPED, Art. 24(2)
24. Civil Rights Defenders
25. Coalition of Cambodian Apparel Workers Domestic Unions (C.CAWDU)
26. Coalition of Cambodian Employee Workers of Industry and Service Union (CEWISU)
27. Coalition of Cambodian Farmer Community (CCFC)
28. Committee to Promote Women in Politics (CPWP)
29. Community Legal Education Centre (CLEC)
30. Community Peace-Building Network (CPN)
31. Equitable Cambodia (EC)
32. Farmer Development Association (FDA)
33. Farmers Association for Peace and Development (FAPD)
34. Gender and Development for Cambodia (GADC)
35. Housing Rights Task Force (HRTF)
36. Human Rights Watch
37. Independent Democracy of Informal Economy Association (IDEA)
38. Independent Monk Network for Social Justice (IMNSJ)
39. IndustriALL Global Union
40. International Federation for Human Rights (FIDH)
41. International Trade Union Confederation (ITUC)
42. Labour Behind the Label
43. LICADHO Canada
44. Messenger Band (MB)
45. Neutral and Impartial Committee for Free and Fair Election in Cambodia (NICFEC)
46. Sahmakum Teang Tnaut (STT)
47. Solidarity Center
48. The Cambodian Committee for Women (CAMBOW)
49. The Cambodian NGO Committee on CEDAW (NGO-CEDAW)
50. Thmar Kol Community
51. UNI Global Union
52. UNISON
53. War on Want
54. Worker Rights Consortium (WRC)