The State of Press Freedom in Cambodia

January - October 2025

From January to October 2025, CCHR monitored developments related to press freedom in Cambodia.

Below are key highlights from this monitoring, which reveals that press freedom is under critical threat, with journalists being targeted with legal harassment for legitimately exercising their crucial reporting duties, and the licenses of media outlets being arbitrarily revoked.

28 journalists, including 5 women journalists, faced harassment:

16 cases of legal harassment

3 cases of physical attack

8 cases of verbal intimidation

3 Media Licenses Revoked

មជ្ឈមណ្ឌលសិទ្ធិមនុស្សកម្ពុជា
Cambodian Center for Human Rights

November 2025

CC BY NC SA