Access to Justice in Cambodia

Third United Nations Periodic Review

RESPONSES

The Royal Government of Cambodia made significant progress in response to 25 Access to Justice recommendations made during the 3rd cycle of the United Nations Universal Periodic Review (UPR). Of the 25 recommendations made, 17 were accepted and 25 only noted.

RECOMMENDED ACTIONS

The state under review, in this case Cambodia, has the primary responsibility to implement the recommendations contained in the final outcome report of the 3rd UPR cycle. The state under review, in this case Cambodia, is accountable for a failure in implementing these recommendations. Cambodia has made its official response to the 3rd cycle recommendations. Of the 218 total recommendations made, 173 were accepted and 25 only noted.

The state under review, in this case Cambodia, has the primary responsibility to implement the recommendations contained in the final outcome report of the 3rd UPR cycle. The state under review, in this case Cambodia, is accountable for a failure in implementing these recommendations. Cambodia has made its official response to the 3rd cycle recommendations. Of the 218 total recommendations made, 173 were accepted and 25 only noted.

The Royal Government of Cambodia made significant progress in response to 25 Access to Justice recommendations made during the 3rd cycle of the United Nations Universal Periodic Review (UPR). Of the 25 recommendations made, 17 were accepted and 25 only noted.

The Royal Government of Cambodia made significant progress in response to 25 Access to Justice recommendations made during the 3rd cycle of the United Nations Universal Periodic Review (UPR). Of the 25 recommendations made, 17 were accepted and 25 only noted. The state under review, in this case Cambodia, has the primary responsibility to implement the recommendations contained in the final outcome report of the 3rd UPR cycle. The state under review, in this case Cambodia, is accountable for a failure in implementing these recommendations. Cambodia has made its official response to the 3rd cycle recommendations. Of the 218 total recommendations made, 173 were accepted and 25 only noted.