This report needs to include photos of the event/activity and copies of receipts for all expenses paid for by the grant.

CCHR reserves the right to ask you to repay the grant if we find out that it has been used inappropriately or in relation to corruption.

If you are at risk and require emergency assistance (including legal representation), please contact CCHR immediately; the Business and Human Rights Project cannot provide legal representation but we can provide legal advice and refer you to other projects if you qualify for legal representation.

Send your application to CCHR at support@cchrcambodia.org, or to CCHR’s office at #798, St. 99, P.O. Box 1506, Sangkat Boeung Trabek, Khan Chamkamorn, Phnom Penh. For more information, please contact CCHR via telephone at +855 (0) 23 72 69 01 or +855 (0) 17 50 50 50
Once the event/activity has been completed, you will need to send CCHR a brief report of the event/activity.

Financial support will be provided for the following:

- Advocacy initiatives and complaints via land dispute resolution mechanisms; and
- Campaigning and/or awareness-raising activities, especially land rights.

How do I apply for funding?

Write to CCHR at least one week before your planned activity/event and tell us:
- A little bit about yourself and the land rights work you have been doing;
- What activity you want the grant to pay for, and when it will take place; and
- The budget, or how you plan to spend the grant.

Is there anything else I need to know?

Once the event/activity has been completed, you will need to send CCHR a brief report of the event/activity.
